BALTIMORE CITY SAFE START INITIATIVE LOGIC MODEL COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES COMMUNITY OUTCOMES COMMUNITY OBJECTIVES Providing community education and Increased awareness in the community of the building awareness about the impact To increase community awareness of impact of child exposure to violence and of child exposure to violence and the impact of child exposure to violence Safe Start Intervention Services. Safe Start Intervention services and Safe Start Intervention Services There is an increase in protective factors among children 0-6 who have been exposed to violence. SYSTEMS CHANGE ACTIVITIES SYSTEMS CHANGE Developing a validated screening tool and SYSTEMS CHANGE collaborating with community agencies, OBJECTIVES OUTCOMES childcare providers, parents, and public and private agencies to screen for child To increase detection of young More children exposed to violence children exposed to violence, and exposure to violence (CEV) are detected earlier. reduce time between event and Training first responders to domestic and identification. community violence and childcare providers on screening to identify children 0-6 exposed to violence Training mental health professionals to More children impacted by exposure increase the number of mental health To increase the number of young children to violence receive mental health clinicians with early childhood impacted by exposure to violence who services in their community from a development knowledge and skills. receive mental health services in their provider who is Safe Start trained community from a provider who is Safe Start Identifying a mental health provider with trained. the capacity to serve children 0-6 and train staff in administering Life Domain assessments and treating CEV. To improve systems of care for children Linking Safe Start services to existing Systems are more coordinated, and exposed to violence so that they are more providers are collaborating more to funding sources coordinated and collaborate better provide provide services for young children services for youth children exposed to Identifying public and private agency exposed to violence. violence. policies and procedures that need to change INTERVENTION SERVICES ACTIVITIES IMPACT To expand mental health services to Funding service linkage provisions children 0-6 to reduce the impact of Reduction in the impact of that include training for service exposure to violence. exposure to violence on providers, an electronic resource children 0-6 directory and follow-up services. Provide mental health services for children 0-6 exposed to violence.