

Safe Start
Local Site Evaluation
Description Outline

Site: Chatham County

Date: November 21, 2003...

Local Impact Assessment

	What is being measured	Measures	Source/Sample	Design	Data collection methods
Systems change and collaboration	System Collaboration & Integration Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Amount of collaboration among members of the Integrated Safe Child System (ISCS) Quality of collaboration within Integrated Safe Child System (ISCS) Performance of the Integrated Safe Child System (ISCS) 	System Collaboration & Integration Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Dyadic interagency relationship data using the Safe Start Collaboration Survey Interview Instrument Scale data using the Safe Start Service System Performance Scale (a portion of the Safe Start Collaboration Survey Interview) 	System Collaboration & Integration Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Key informants of the members of the Integrated Safe Child System 	System Collaboration & Integration Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Interviews with members of the ISCS and then interviews with those that were mentioned at least twice by Integrated Safe Child System (ISCS) members as being collaborators Data will be collected at two time intervals (A-B design) Network analysis using Ucinet 5 and KrackPlot 3.1 alpha 	System Collaboration & Integration Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Telephone Interviews
Community awareness/ involvement Neighborhood-based program that reduces family risk factors and increases community protective factors	Community Family Allies Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Number of children exposed to violence: 45-90 over two years 	Community Family Allies Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Number of unduplicated incidents of children exposed to violence occurring in a given neighborhood using police call incident data and domestic violence record data 	Community Family Allies Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Three neighborhoods in a small town in the county 	Community Family Allies Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Quasi-experimental Two test neighborhoods, One control 	Community Family Allies Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Abstraction of police call incident reports from county's three jurisdictions Abstraction of domestic violence agency records

Intervention Research

Outcomes Clinical child therapy, in-home family therapy and in-home parent education programs	Family Advocacy Therapeutic Services, Intensive Home-based Therapy, and Family Advocacy In-home Services programs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Changes in the conditions that may have resulted from or have a causative effect in situations of children exposed to violence 	Family Advocacy Therapeutic Services, Intensive Home-based Therapy, and Family Advocacy In-home Services programs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Single subject outcome studies of each program case Aggregate study of proportion of single subject "successes" 	Family Advocacy Therapeutic Services, Intensive Home-based Therapy, and Family Advocacy In-home Services programs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Program families 	Family Advocacy Therapeutic Services, Intensive Home-based Therapy, and Family Advocacy In-home Services programs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A-B-A single-subject research designs Statistical significance of proportion of "successful" cases for each program 	Family Advocacy Therapeutic Services, Intensive Home-based Therapy, and Family Advocacy In-home Services programs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Single subject case data recorded by program counselors
--	---	---	---	---	--